

Dr. G. K. Tiwari

Dr. G. K. Tiwari is currently serving as an Assistant Professor at the Department of Psychology, School of Humanities & Social Sciences, Doctor Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya (A Central University), Sagar, 470003, Madhya Pradesh, India. Dr. Tiwari received the Ph.D. degree in Psychology from Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi in 2009. He is the Regional Secretary of the Indian Academy of Health Psychology (Central Zone). He is also a Life Member of the Indian Academy of Applied Psychology (IAAP) and the Indian Science Congress Association (ICSA). He is a Member of the Editorial Board of the Iranian Rehabilitation Journal, a Scopus-indexed journal published in Iran. His research focuses on forgiveness, positive body image, self-affirmation, self-compassion, eyewitness memory, metacognition, and Psychology of women. He is currently conducting numerous research projects (non-funded) with an interdisciplinary focus together with his colleagues, research scholars and master's students. He has published more than 63 research articles in prestigious journals. In addition, he has written three book chapters and two books. He also completed two research projects on "Arousal and emotion regulation in eyewitness performance of state and trait anxiety subjects" and "Development of situational judgment test items for the assessment of personality attributes" funded by the University Grants Commission, New Delhi and the Defence Institute of Psychological Research (DIPR), DRDO, New Delhi. He developed seven E-contents available at the Consortium for Education Communication (CEC). He has successfully supervised seven doctoral works. He delivered more than 154 invited lectures. Under his direction, he conducted several workshops, seminars and conferences. He is the coordinator of the P. G. Diploma in Psychological Counselling, Institute of Distance Education, and Diploma in Guidance & Counseling, and Diploma in Psychology of Health & Well-being, Community College, Dr. H. S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar, M. P. He is also a member of Board of studies of many universities.